KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

REMINDER

Chaplain's Message

We are in the final week of the Christmas season. The season ends with the celebration of Masses this coming weekend: the Baptism of the Lord.

We will then be back in Ordinary Time for several weeks before beginning the season of Lent on Ash Wednesday, February 25th.

Remember, Ordinary Time does not mean "ordinary", as in "typical".

Instead, Ordinary Time comes from the words "ordinal", which means "to number".

We count the days to the end of the liturgical year in Ordinary Time.

And so it should be with our own lives.

We should not live "ordinary" lives in this world.

Instead, we should live lives that count!

We do so in a vast number of ways.

Each time we begin a project that targets helping the poor or the needy, we count.

Each time we help someone who is in need (as so many did during the past flood), we count.

Each time we live our lives as the Lord asks, we count.

The world is counting on us to be an example of Gospel charity, of Gospel love.

Stand up and count today!

Fraternally,

Rev. Michael J. Yadron,
Chaplain
